the play loday critics were winds concede the Canadians anything but an outside chance.

The first match, that of Brookes and Schwengers, was hardly completed before a terrific storm began. The showers which lasted more than an hour, drove the spectators to shelter and threatened to cause a post-ponement of the second match, but canvas covers kept the courts nearly dry and Wilding refused to consent to having the match set back.

Wilding played a wonderful game, much better than his practice matchpassing was marvelous, alley shots just inside the side lines and just short of the base lines leaving Powell helpless at times. His drives just topped the nets and his lobbing kept the Canadian playing far back of the base line.

Powell occasionally also showed

Powell occasionally also showed great skill in placing, but his service was not to be compared with his opponent's.

Lack of confidence probably hastened Schwenger's defeat at the hands of Brookes. The latter, though seemingly not the brilliant master of the game that Wilding is, easily had the better of Schwengers.

Brookes won the first game, beating Schwengers in a love game. His first point was a service ace and the others were won when the Canadian drove into the net.

Double faults by Schwengers lost him the second game 4 to 2. The third game went to Brookes 4-0, on his own service. Brookes took the next one 4-1. Schwengers on his own service took the seventh 4-0, but the game went to Brookes 4-1, the Canadian being unable to get started against the Australian's service.

Schwengers on his own service are took the seventh 4-0, but the gight went to Brookes, 4-0, making the set 6-2.

Pirates May Drop 11 Players.

President Barney Dreyfuss of the Pittsburgh baseball club is going to use drastic measures if the Pirates do use drastic measures if the pirates draw another in the net.

In the fifth game Brookes took the lead and Schwengers overshot and-drove another in the net. A side cork shot gave the Canadian one point, but the game went to Brookes.

A brilliant volley featured the sixth game, which went to Schwengers 4-2.
